

April 10 – 14, 2024
Almond Tree RV Park
Hosted by
Tom & Vanessa Mezzanares

The Almond Tree RV Park is located 93 miles from the State Capital at 3124 Esplanade in Chico.

We have Clubhouse privileges, which are free if we have 8 rigs or more. Otherwise, cost will be $15 per night.

Propane fire pits are allowed, so ours will be available at the host site.

Itinerary

Wed/Thu - on your own.

Fri – 9am to 10:30am – French Toast casserole and Juice in the clubhouse, BYO coffee
6pm – Polish Dogs and Hot Dogs with condiments. Not a potluck, so only bring your drinks. (Location to be determined).

Sat – 9am to 10:30am – Breakfast casserole and juice in the clubhouse, BYO coffee
6pm – Potluck – Host providing BBQ Chicken.

Sun – Check out is Noon

RSVP (Yes or No) to tjmezzan@gmail.com or 916-752-7443

No later than April 1, 2024. Only 10 spots available – first come, first served!

Area Attractions: Bidwell Mansion State Historic Park, home of gentleman farmer and Chico founder, John Bidwell and his activist wife, Annie. Bidwell Park, the Nation's 2nd largest municipal park with towering oaks, beautiful trails and swimming holes.

Historic Downtown Chico and City Plaza. Sierra Nevada Brewery. Secret Trails Brewing Company. Gateway Science Museum – learn about the natural history of Northern California.